

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Social Studies

Tasks:

1. Write the words in the correct gaps!
2. Scan the QR code to check if everything is correct!
3. Copy the text again in your notebook without any mistakes!

Social studies is a _____ of study that explores various aspects of human _____. It includes history, which delves into the _____ and people that shaped our past. Geography helps us understand the physical _____ of the world and its impact on human activities. Political science studies the _____ and political processes that govern societies. Economics focuses on how resources are _____ and used in societies. Anthropology examines _____ and their development over time. Sociology looks at social _____ and group dynamics. Psychology explores the _____ and behavior of individuals. Each branch of social studies provides a unique perspective on the complex _____ of human life. Through social studies, students learn about _____, respect for different cultures, and the importance of _____. This field encourages critical _____ and helps students understand their role in the global _____.

layout	diversity	society	thinking	cooperation	cultures	events
mind	tapestry	governments	field	behavior	allocated	community