

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

A Glimpse into Liechtenstein

Liechtenstein is a tiny, landlocked _____ nestled between Switzerland and Austria. Despite its small size, it boasts a rich _____ dating back to 1719 when it was established as a principality. The capital, _____, is not just the administrative center but also a cultural hub, housing the Prince's castle and several museums. The _____ of Liechtenstein is about 38,000 people, making it one of the smallest countries in the world.

The _____ of Liechtenstein is highly developed, with a strong focus on banking, finance, and manufacturing, particularly in high-tech industries. The country uses the Swiss _____ as its currency, reflecting its close economic ties with Switzerland. Despite its diminutive size, _____ has one of the highest GDP per capita in the world. Education in Liechtenstein is highly valued, with a system that emphasizes both academic and vocational _____. The University of Liechtenstein is known for its architecture and business programs, attracting students from various countries.

Liechtenstein is also renowned for its _____ beauty, with a landscape dominated by the Alps. This makes it a popular destination for outdoor activities such as hiking, skiing, and mountain biking. The Rhine _____ forms the western border of the country, providing stunning scenery and opportunities for fishing and _____.

Culturally, Liechtenstein has a rich tapestry that blends traditions from both its neighbors. The country celebrates a variety of _____ throughout the year, showcasing its music, art, and cuisine. Among these, the Liechtenstein National Day on August 15th is a highlight, featuring fireworks, concerts, and a speech from the _____.

Despite its small stature on the global stage, Liechtenstein plays a significant role in international _____ and has been a member of the United Nations since 1990. The country is also part of the European Free Trade _____, though it is not a member of the European Union. This unique position allows Liechtenstein to maintain its independence while being actively involved in European and global _____.

- | | | | | | | | |
|---------------|-----------|---------|------------|----------|-------------|-------|---------|
| Liechtenstein | boating | Prince | country | training | Association | Vaduz | history |
| diplomacy | festivals | natural | population | economy | affairs | River | franc |