

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

America's Independence

The Declaration of Independence was a crucial document in American history. Written by Thomas _____, it was adopted on July 4, 1776. This document announced the thirteen American colonies' _____ from British rule. It emphasized the colonies' right to choose their own government. The _____ listed grievances against King George III of Britain, stating that his rule was unjust. One key grievance was taxation without _____. The Declaration argued that all men are created equal, with rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of _____. It was signed by representatives from each colony. This united the colonies in their fight for _____. The Declaration inspired many to join the Revolution. It also influenced other countries seeking _____. The Declaration remains a symbol of America's founding principles. The _____ in the Declaration were revolutionary. They challenged the traditional _____ of Europe. By asserting that governments derive their power from the _____ of the governed, it promoted the idea of democracy. The Declaration also emphasized individual _____, which became a core value in American society. During the war, it served as a powerful _____ tool, rallying support for the colonial cause. Its powerful words echoed in the hearts of people, motivating them to fight for a common _____. After the war, the Declaration continued to influence the creation of the U.S. _____ and the Bill of Rights. It laid the foundation for a nation built on freedom and _____. Today, the Declaration of Independence is not only a historical document but also a _____ of hope and justice worldwide.

- monarchies
- independence
- Declaration
- freedom
- Jefferson
- separation
- happiness
- symbol
- propaganda
- ideas
- representation
- rights
- equality
- Constitution
- consent
- cause