

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

American Revolution

The American _____ was a pivotal event in world history, marking the birth of the United States. It began in 1775, when _____ colonists started fighting against British rule. The _____ were frustrated with unfair taxes and lack of representation in the British Parliament. One famous event, the Boston Tea _____, symbolized their resistance. Here, colonists disguised as Native Americans threw British tea into the _____ as a protest.

The Declaration of _____, written in 1776, was a key _____ . It declared the colonies free from British rule. Thomas _____, a brilliant thinker, was its primary author. The document emphasized _____, equality, and democracy. Battles like those at _____ and Concord were early conflicts in the war. The war was tough for the colonists, facing a well-trained British _____.

However, the colonists had strong leaders like George _____. They also received crucial help from foreign countries, especially _____. The Treaty of _____ in _____ officially ended the war. It recognized the independence of the United States and set new _____ for the nation. This revolution inspired other _____ and became a symbol of the fight for freedom and _____ worldwide.

Paris	Jefferson	boundaries	Independence	Lexington	liberty	Revolution
army	countries	justice	moment	1783	Washington	American	France
colonists	Party	harbor					