

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Bannockburn and Scottish Heritage

In the early 14th century, Scotland was in a _____ for independence. The Scots, led by Robert the Bruce, faced the English army at _____ in 1314. This battle was crucial for Scottish _____. The English, under King Edward II, were confident of their _____ numbers. However, the Scottish forces used the _____ to their advantage. Robert the Bruce's _____ was brilliant, turning the battle in their favor. The Scots fought with _____, knowing the importance of this fight. The English, caught off guard by the _____ of the Scots, began to falter. The Scottish _____ charged, causing chaos in the English ranks. Surprisingly, this battle did not last long; the English were _____ within two days. This victory at Bannockburn became a _____ of Scottish resilience and pride. It is remembered through _____ and stories, keeping the spirit of independence alive. The battle had a significant impact on _____ Scottish culture, influencing future generations.

terrain

symbol

superior

struggle

warriors

Medieval

tactics

determination

strategy

defeated

freedom

songs

Bannockburn