

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Boston Tea Party Protest

The Boston Tea Party was a significant _____ in American history. It happened on December 16, 1773. A group of colonists, called the _____ of Liberty, protested against British taxation. They were angry about the _____, which allowed the British East India Company to sell tea at lower prices than local _____. The colonists saw this as unfair and a way for Britain to control them.

On the night of the _____, the Sons of Liberty dressed as Native Americans. They boarded three British _____ in Boston Harbor. The ships were carrying large amounts of tea. The protesters dumped 342 _____ of tea into the harbor. This act of defiance was a response to what they felt was _____.

The Boston Tea Party was more than just about tea. It was a statement against British _____. It showed that the colonists were willing to take drastic actions for their _____. The British government was furious and responded with harsh measures. They passed the _____ Acts to punish the colonists. These laws restricted colonists' freedoms and made life in the _____ more difficult.

The Boston Tea Party united many colonists against Britain. It fueled the growing _____ for independence. It led to the formation of the First Continental _____, where representatives from different colonies gathered to discuss their next _____. This event was a key moment that set the stage for the American _____. The Boston Tea Party remains a symbol of resistance and the fight for _____.

- | | | | | | | | | |
|------------|-------|--------|----------|---------|-------------|-----------|---------|--------|
| Revolution | steps | desire | colonies | protest | Intolerable | freedom | liberty | |
| Tea Act | Sons | event | Congress | rule | tyranny | merchants | ships | chests |