

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Constitutional Monarchy Explained

The Glorious Revolution happened in 1688. It changed the _____ England was governed. Before the Revolution, King James II had a lot of _____ . People were unhappy with his rule. They wanted a fairer _____ .

_____ . They invited William of Orange and his wife Mary to take the _____ . This change was called the Glorious Revolution.

William and Mary had to agree to a new _____ . This law was the Bill of Rights. It limited the king's power. It gave more power to the _____ .

_____ . This was the start of a constitutional monarchy. In a constitutional _____ , the king or queen has less power. The Parliament makes most of the _____ .

_____ .

The Glorious Revolution had many effects. It made England more _____ .

_____ . It protected the rights of citizens. It also influenced other _____ . They saw how England changed and wanted to do the same.

Today, _____ still has a constitutional monarchy. The king or queen is a _____ . They do not make the laws. The Parliament and the Prime _____ do that. The Glorious Revolution was a big step towards the government England has today.

- monarchy
- system
- Parliament
- way
- countries
- England
- democratic
- decisions
- symbol
- throne
- law
- power
- Minister