

name: class: date:

Dafydd ap Gwilym and Medieval Wales

Dafydd ap Gwilym, a notable _____ of medieval Wales, played a significant role in shaping Welsh _____. Born around the early 14th century, Dafydd revolutionized Welsh _____ with his innovative style and themes. Unlike the traditional poets of his time, who focused on religious or heroic themes, Dafydd's poems often explored the beauty of _____ and the complexities of _____. His works were written in the Welsh _____, contributing to its preservation and richness.

Dafydd's poetry was characterized by vivid _____ and a deep appreciation for the natural _____ of Wales. He often wrote about forests, rivers, and _____, bringing them to life with his words. His love poems were equally compelling, portraying his affections for various women, sometimes in a humorous _____.

The poet lived during a time when Wales was experiencing significant _____ and social changes. Despite these turbulent times, Dafydd's work remained mostly apolitical, focusing instead on the beauty of the _____ around him. This approach made his poetry timeless and relatable, even centuries later.

Dafydd ap Gwilym's influence on Welsh culture extends beyond _____. He is considered a symbol of Welsh _____ and pride. Many schools and cultural institutions in Wales study his work, ensuring that his legacy continues to inspire future generations. Dafydd's contribution to Welsh poetry has made him a legendary _____ in Wales and an important part of its _____.

figure poet nature literature poetry manner identity animals
language literature landscape history love world imagery political