

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Discovering Croatia

Croatia, a _____ with a rich history, is located in Southeast Europe along the Adriatic Sea. Its capital, _____, is known for its medieval architecture and vibrant street life. The population of Croatia enjoys a temperate _____, with warm summers and cold winters. One of the country's most famous landmarks is the _____ Palace in Split, built by the Roman emperor Diocletian. Croatian cuisine is diverse, featuring dishes like _____, small grilled meat sausages, and strudel, a type of layered pastry. The national sport is _____, passionately followed by many. Croatia is also renowned for its beautiful _____ and clear blue seas, attracting tourists to its numerous _____. Among these, Hvar is celebrated for its scenic beauty and lavender fields. The country's education _____ includes primary, secondary, and higher education, with a focus on promoting _____, especially in English and German. Traditional music and dance are integral parts of Croatian _____, preserving the country's heritage. Finally, the Plitvice Lakes National Park, known for its cascading _____ and breathtaking natural beauty, is a UNESCO World Heritage site and a must-visit for _____ lovers.

country

bilingualism

čevapi

system

coastlines

football

islands

climate

culture

lakes

nature

Diocletian's

Zagreb