

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Discovering Cuba

Cuba is an island located in the _____ Sea, known for its vibrant culture and beautiful beaches. The capital of Cuba is _____, a city famous for its historic architecture and colorful streets. One of the most significant historical events in Cuba is the _____ that took place in the late 1950s, leading to significant changes in the country's _____ and social structure. The island's economy heavily relies on _____, agriculture, and the production of sugar cane. Cuban music is a blend of African, _____, and Caribbean influences, making it unique and widely appreciated around the _____. The Cuban cuisine is another aspect of its rich culture, featuring _____ like ropa vieja and arroz con pollo. Cuba's natural landscapes are diverse, ranging from _____ to tropical forests and stunning beaches. The country is also known for its production of _____, considered some of the best in the world. Despite its beauty and cultural _____, Cuba faces challenges such as economic sanctions and the need for political and economic _____. Education in Cuba is highly valued, with a literacy rate among the highest in the region. The Cuban _____ are known for their warmth and hospitality, welcoming visitors from all over the globe to explore their _____.

tourism

people

government

revolution

island

Havana

reform

Caribbean

cigars

world

mountains

Spanish

dishes

wealth