

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Discovering the Conspiracy of the Gunpowder Plot

In 1605, a _____ to blow up the English Parliament was discovered. The Gunpowder Plot was an attempt by a group of _____ to assassinate King James I. They were angry about the treatment of _____ in England. The leader of the plot was Robert Catesby. He and his followers hid _____ in a cellar under the House of Lords. The plot was discovered when a letter was sent to Lord _____. The letter warned him not to attend Parliament on November 5th. Suspicious of the _____, Monteagle informed the authorities. The King's men searched the _____ and found Guy Fawkes guarding the gunpowder. Fawkes was arrested and tortured until he revealed the names of his _____. The plotters were captured and executed for their crime. The _____ of the plot is now commemorated in the UK as _____ Night.

accomplices

Catholics

letter

Catholics

Monteagle

Bonfire

plot

cellar

gunpowder

discovery