

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

English Garden Design Evolution

In the 19th century, the _____ era brought significant changes to English garden design. During this time, gardens were not just for growing food, but also for _____ and leisure. The Victorians had a deep appreciation for nature, which was reflected in their elaborate and ornamental gardens. These gardens were a symbol of _____ and wealth, showcasing exotic plants and intricate designs. The introduction of the _____ allowed rare and tropical plants to thrive in the English climate. Garden parties and _____ tea became popular social events, held amidst the stunning _____ of manicured lawns and colorful flowerbeds. Key features included winding _____, large trees, and decorative statues, often inspired by classical mythology. The _____, invented during this era, made it easier to maintain vast expanses of grass. Water features like _____ and ponds were common, adding a sense of tranquility and _____. The Victorian garden was a place of escape, where people could enjoy the beauty of _____ and the art of landscape design. This period also saw the rise of public _____, making green spaces accessible to everyone, not just the wealthy. These gardens left a lasting _____ on English garden design, influencing the layout and _____ of gardens to this day.

- Victorian
- lawnmower
- aesthetics
- status
- elegance
- nature
- fountains
- paths
- backdrop
- parks
- afternoon
- greenhouse
- beauty
- legacy