

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Exploring Finland

Finland, a _____ in Northern Europe, is known for its vast forests, numerous lakes, and unique _____ lights. The capital, Helsinki, is famous for its sea-facing architecture and modern _____ . Finnish people enjoy saunas, a traditional activity that is almost considered a national _____ . The official languages are Finnish and Swedish, reflecting the country's diverse cultural _____ . Finland's education system is one of the best in the world, focusing on creativity and critical _____ . The climate varies greatly, with cold, dark winters and surprisingly warm _____ . Every year, Finland hosts the Midnight Sun Festival, where the sun doesn't set for several weeks, especially in the north. The _____ Claus Village in Lapland is a popular tourist destination, especially during _____ . Finland is also known for its wildlife, including brown _____ , wolves, and reindeer. The country's cuisine is a mix of eastern and western _____ , with dishes like salmon soup and Karelian pies. Lastly, Finland is a leader in technology and _____ , home to companies that have a global _____ .

- | | | | | | | |
|------------|----------|-------|----------|----------|------------|-------|
| December | northern | Santa | summers | country | innovation | |
| influences | impact | bears | thinking | heritage | design | sport |