

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Exploring Indonesia

Indonesia is an _____ made up of over 17,000 islands. It is located in Southeast Asia, surrounded by the Pacific and the _____ Oceans. Among these islands, Bali, Java, and Sumatra are the most _____. The country is known for its volcanoes, many of which are still active. Indonesia's _____ are among the most biodiverse habitats on Earth, home to a wide range of species. The national _____, the Komodo dragon, lives on a few of these islands. Indonesian _____ is varied and flavorful, reflecting the diversity of its many cultures. Rice is the staple _____, often served with spicy meats and vegetables. The country's _____ is growing, with tourism and agriculture playing key roles. Indonesia is also the world's largest _____ country. The culture of Indonesia is influenced by many traditions, including _____, Buddhism, and Islam. Finally, Indonesia's _____ are renowned for their stunning beaches and excellent diving _____.

- cuisine
- coastlines
- Indian
- island
- Hinduism
- animal
- food
- famous
- rainforests
- spots
- economy
- archipelago