

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Exploring Moldova

Moldova is a small _____ located in Eastern Europe, known for its picturesque landscapes and rich history. The _____ of Moldova is Chişinău, a city full of life and culture. This country is famous for its _____, which are among the largest in the world. Many tourists visit Moldova to explore the _____ where wine is stored and to taste the unique flavors of the local wine.

The official _____ of Moldova is Romanian, reflecting its close historical ties with Romania. Despite its small size, Moldova has a diverse _____, influenced by Romanian, Russian, and Ottoman traditions. The traditional _____ in Moldova includes dishes like mămăligă, a type of cornmeal porridge, and _____, cabbage rolls filled with minced meat.

Moldova is home to several beautiful _____ and churches, showcasing its rich Orthodox Christian heritage. Among these, the Orheiul _____ monastery complex stands out, carved into a limestone cliff and offering breathtaking views of the Răut River.

The _____ of Moldova is primarily agricultural, with wine production being a significant _____. Despite economic challenges, Moldova is making strides towards _____ with the European Union, aiming to improve its economy and quality of life for its _____.

Education in Moldova is highly valued, with a literacy rate of almost 100%. The _____ system emphasizes the importance of both modern and traditional subjects, preparing students for a changing world while keeping them connected to their cultural _____.

Moldova might be small, but it is a country with a big heart, offering visitors a glimpse into a _____ of unspoiled natural beauty, ancient traditions, and warm hospitality.

- | | | | | | | | | |
|-------------|-------------|----------|---------|-------------|----------|---------|----------|-------|
| caves | monasteries | economy | capital | school | roots | food | sarmale | Vechi |
| integration | world | wineries | country | contributor | language | culture | citizens | |