

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Exploring North Korea

North Korea, officially known as the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, is a _____ located in East Asia, bordered by China to the north and South Korea to the south. The _____, Pyongyang, is the largest city and the heart of its political, cultural, and economic life. North Korea is governed by a _____ regime, with Kim Jong-un serving as the nation's supreme leader. The _____ controls all aspects of life, including the media, which is used to propagate the official _____ and policies. Despite its isolation, North Korea has a significant _____, one of the largest standing armies in the world. The economy is state-controlled, and its _____ face many restrictions, including limited access to the internet and foreign media. Agriculture is a key _____, with rice and corn being the main crops. However, the country faces chronic food shortages and relies on international _____ to feed its population. North Korea is also known for its _____ program, which has led to international sanctions. The landscape is predominantly _____, with the highest peak being Mount Paektu, considered a sacred site. North Koreans celebrate various _____, including the birthday of their founding leader, Kim Il-sung, which is one of the most important _____ in the country. Despite the harsh realities of life under the regime, there is a strong sense of _____ among its citizens, who are taught from a young age to revere their leaders and country.

- totalitarian
- mountainous
- sector
- ideology
- citizens
- aid
- government
- capital
- events
- country
- nuclear
- military
- nationalism
- holidays