

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Exploring the Netherlands

The _____ is known for its flat landscape, which includes canals, tulip fields, windmills, and cycling _____. Amsterdam, the capital, is home to the Van Gogh Museum, the Rijksmuseum, and the _____ where Jewish diarist Anne Frank hid during WWII. The country's bicycle-friendly _____ makes it easy for everyone to explore the cities and countryside. Dutch _____ may not be famous worldwide, but it offers unique dishes like stroopwafel and bitterballen. The _____ is also renowned for its historic windmills, with Kinderdijk being a UNESCO World Heritage site. The country's _____ to renewable energy is evident in its extensive use of wind power. _____ in the Netherlands is highly regarded, with a focus on innovation and international study programs. The Dutch celebrate _____ with great enthusiasm, wearing orange and participating in nationwide street markets. The _____ is a world-famous theme park, known for its fairy-tale settings and attractions. The country's location below _____ requires innovative water management techniques, which have become a part of Dutch engineering _____. Football is a major sport, with the Netherlands producing many internationally recognized _____. Lastly, the Dutch Tulip Season is a significant tourist attraction, drawing visitors from around the _____ to see the vibrant fields.

Netherlands routes legacy culture cuisine sea level Efteling
Education commitment players house King's Day world Netherlands