

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Galahad in Arthurian Legend

In the _____ legends, Sir Galahad is known for his
_____. As the _____ of Sir Lancelot, Galahad was destined for greatness. Unlike his father, Galahad's strength lay in his _____ rather than just his _____ in battle. He was raised in a _____, where he developed a deep sense of
_____. When he arrived at _____ Arthur's court, he was the only knight capable of sitting in the _____ Perilous, a chair meant for the purest knight. His greatest _____ was the search for the Holy Grail, the cup Jesus used at the Last Supper. Galahad, along with Sir _____ and Sir _____, embarked on this perilous journey. Throughout his quest, Galahad remained _____ by the worldly distractions that ensnared many knights. His _____ and purity allowed him to succeed where others failed. Ultimately, Galahad achieved the _____ of witnessing the Holy Grail, a feat that symbolized his unmatched spiritual purity. His life ended in a _____ ascension to heaven, marking him as one of the most revered figures in the Arthurian legends.

nunnery

quest

Percival

honor

son

mystical

skills

King

purity

Bors

Siege

virtue

untempted

Arthurian

faith

piety