

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Jamestown's Early Days

Jamestown was the first permanent English _____ in America. It was founded in 1607. The settlers faced many challenges. They had to deal with _____. Many people got sick and died. The settlers also had problems with _____. They did not know how to farm in the new land. They relied on supplies from England.

Relations with the Native _____ were tense. Sometimes they traded peacefully. Other times, they fought. The _____ of the colony, John Smith, played a key role. He helped the _____ survive by making them work hard. He famously said, "He who does not work, will not eat."

_____ became a very important crop in Jamestown. It was introduced by John _____. Tobacco farming made the colony profitable. This attracted more settlers. Over _____, Jamestown grew. It became the capital of the Virginia _____. The settlement marked the beginning of English colonization in America. Its _____ paved the way for future colonies.

Despite its early struggles, Jamestown left a lasting _____. It showed that a permanent English settlement was possible. This encouraged further _____ and colonization. Jamestown played a crucial role in American _____.

- colony
- settlement
- success
- diseases
- Rolfe
- Americans
- food
- exploration
- history
- leader
- time
- Tobacco
- legacy
- settlers