

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Journalism

Journalism is a vital _____ that plays a significant role in our society. It involves the gathering, writing, and broadcasting of _____ and information. Journalists work in various mediums, including newspapers, television, radio, and online platforms. Their primary goal is to inform the public about events and issues. Journalists often conduct _____ to gather information and perspectives. They also spend time researching to ensure their reports are accurate. In journalism, ethics are crucial; journalists must always strive for _____ and fairness. This _____ has evolved significantly with the advent of the internet and _____. Today, journalists face the challenge of distinguishing between real news and _____. Journalism can influence public opinion and policy decisions. It also plays a key role in holding _____ and individuals accountable. Despite the challenges, journalism remains an essential pillar of a democratic _____. A journalist's day might include attending press conferences, analyzing data, and working on tight _____. The field of journalism is dynamic, constantly adapting to new _____ and changing societal needs.

field governments misinformation deadlines news social media society technologies field objectivity interviews