

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Journeys of Discovery

During the _____ of Exploration, adventurers and explorers set sail from Europe to discover new _____. This era, starting in the 15th century, was driven by a desire for _____, new trade _____, and the spread of _____. Explorers like _____ embarked on dangerous voyages across unknown seas, ultimately connecting the _____ in unprecedented ways. The discovery of the _____ by Columbus in 1492 was a pivotal moment, reshaping global _____ and interactions. This period also saw the rise of _____ technologies, making sea travel more precise and safer. Artists were inspired by these new _____, incorporating exotic themes and landscapes into their _____. The exchange of goods during this time introduced new _____ to European artists, such as vibrant dyes and precious metals, enriching the visual arts. Moreover, the Age of Exploration spurred intellectual curiosity, leading to advancements in _____ and the humanities. This era of exploration not only expanded geographical knowledge but also influenced the cultural and artistic landscape of Europe, marking the beginning of a new era in _____.

Americas

science

trade

work

materials

Columbus

history

wealth

world

routes

navigational

lands

Age

Christianity

discoveries