

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Layout Design

Layout design is a crucial aspect of _____ design. It's about arranging _____ on a page or screen to create an effective visual _____. Good layout design ensures that _____ is presented clearly and attractively. It involves the use of _____, the choice of _____, and the integration of _____ and images. For example, in a magazine layout, the designer must balance _____, body text, and _____ to create a harmonious look. The _____ system is a popular tool in layout design. It helps organize content in a structured and consistent _____. This system is not only about strict _____ but also allows for creative _____. Layout design also includes the consideration of _____, which plays a significant role in how information is _____. Each element in the layout, from font choice to line _____, contributes to the overall _____ of the design. The goal of layout design is to guide the viewer's eye across the page in a natural and _____ way.

rules headlines flexibility engaging colors composition text information impact graphic photos elements manner typography space perceived grid spacing