

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Loyalists in the Glorious Revolution

The Glorious Revolution took place in 1688. During this time, _____ supported King James II. They believed in his divine right to rule. Many _____ were Catholic, like the king. They wanted to protect their _____. When William of Orange invaded, the Loyalists were ready to defend James. They saw William as a _____ to their way of life. However, many people did not agree with the Loyalists. They wanted a Protestant _____. This caused a lot of conflict. The Loyalists fought in several _____ to keep James on the throne. Despite their efforts, James had to flee to _____. William and his wife Mary became the new rulers. The Loyalists were left without a _____. Their power and influence began to decline. Many Loyalists felt betrayed and abandoned. They struggled to find a new place in _____. Some Loyalists continued to support James from afar. They hoped he would return to power one _____. However, most people accepted the new regime. The Glorious Revolution changed the political _____ of England forever. It marked the end of absolute monarchy. The power of the _____ increased significantly. The Loyalists' resistance was a key part of this historical _____. Their struggle highlighted the deep religious and political _____ of the time.

threat

event

divisions

battles

landscape

society

day

ruler

leader

Loyalists

Loyalists

France

religion

parliament