

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Marble Sculptures

Marble sculptures are renowned for their beauty and durability. The process of creating a _____ begins with the selection of a suitable marble block. Marble, being a type of _____, has been a favorite among artists for centuries. The most famous marble sculptures often depict _____ figures or mythological scenes. Tools like chisels and hammers are used to _____ the marble. Artists must be careful as marble is both hard and _____. The _____ in these sculptures can be incredibly intricate. Famous sculptures like Michelangelo's _____ are made of marble. The _____ of marble can vary, ranging from white to black. Sculptures are often polished to a high _____, enhancing their appearance. Ancient _____ and Rome were known for their marble sculptures. Today, these artworks are displayed in _____ around the world.

human

museums

color

shine

sculpture

fragile

David

carve

details

Greece

stone