

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Portraiture Photography

Portraiture photography is a unique _____ form that captures the essence of a person. The _____ uses various techniques to bring out the subject's personality. Lighting plays a crucial role in setting the _____. It can be soft for a gentle look, or dramatic to create intensity. The background is also important and should complement the _____. Choosing the right _____ and lens is vital for clarity and depth. Portrait photographers often engage with their subjects to elicit natural _____. This connection can make the photo more _____. Post-processing is another key element, where _____ and contrasts are adjusted. The _____ of the subject are usually the focal point, as they convey emotions. Clothing and _____ can add context to the story being told. The photographer's style often reflects their _____ on portraiture. Every portrait is a piece of _____, telling a unique story about its subject.

photographer art mood art props perspective camera colors subject authentic expressions eyes