

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Raphael's Renaissance Art

Raphael, a master of _____ art, was born in Italy, a country known for its rich cultural heritage. His father, a _____, introduced him to the world of art. At a young age, Raphael started his apprenticeship with the famous artist _____. This experience shaped his early style, which was noted for its clarity and grace. Raphael moved to _____ in 1504, a city bustling with artistic activity. Here, he was influenced by the works of _____ da Vinci and Michelangelo. His style evolved, becoming more dynamic and expressive. Raphael's most famous works include the School of _____ and the Sistine Madonna. In the School of Athens, he depicted various philosophers, including _____ and Aristotle, symbolizing the fusion of art, philosophy, and science. His use of perspective and attention to detail was revolutionary. Raphael also worked in the _____, where he painted several rooms, known as the Raphael Rooms. His work there showcases his skill in _____ and his ability to convey complex themes through art. Besides painting, Raphael was also an accomplished _____. He was involved in the design of St. Peter's Basilica in _____. His architectural style was harmonious and balanced, reflecting the _____ of the Renaissance. Raphael's influence extended beyond his lifetime. His _____ inspired countless artists and played a significant role in shaping the course of _____ art. His legacy is a testament to the enduring impact of Renaissance ideals on Western _____.

fresco	works	European	Athens	Florence	Perugino	Plato	Vatican culture	architect	Rome	painter	ideals	Leonardo	Renaissance	