

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Robert Catesby and the Gunpowder Plot

Robert Catesby was the main _____ of the Gunpowder Plot. This plot aimed to blow up the Houses of Parliament. Catesby wanted to overthrow the _____. He believed that the Catholics were treated unfairly. England was ruled by King James I, who was _____. Catesby was determined to restore a Catholic monarchy.

Catesby gathered a group of loyal _____. One of the most famous members was Guy Fawkes. Fawkes was experienced with explosives. The group rented a _____ beneath the Houses of Parliament. They filled it with barrels of gunpowder. The plan was to detonate the explosives during the State _____ of Parliament. This event would be attended by the king, his heirs, and many important figures.

Catesby hoped the explosion would spark a _____. He wanted the English Catholics to rise up against their oppressors. The plot, however, was discovered. An anonymous _____ warned one of the Lords to stay away from Parliament on that day. The letter reached the _____. They searched the cellar and found Guy Fawkes with the gunpowder.

The conspirators tried to _____. Some fled to Holbeche House in the Midlands. Catesby and his men made a final stand there. A fierce _____ ensued. Catesby was wounded and later died from his injuries. The other plotters were captured and _____.

The Gunpowder Plot left a significant mark on history. It is remembered every year on November 5th as _____ Night. People in Britain light bonfires and set off fireworks to commemorate the _____ of the plot. Catesby's actions, though unsuccessful, are a reminder of the struggles and _____ in England during that time.

- | | | | | | | | |
|----------|----------|------------|-----------|-----------|-------------|---------|------------|
| Bonfire | executed | government | followers | organizer | revolt | letter | |
| shootout | Opening | tensions | escape | cellar | authorities | failure | Protestant |