

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Sir Walter Raleigh - Explorer and Adventurer

Sir Walter Raleigh was a significant _____ in the Elizabethan Age of Exploration. Born in 1552, he grew up during a time of great _____ and discovery. Raleigh was a favorite of Queen Elizabeth I, who granted him _____ to explore the New World. He led several expeditions to North America, aiming to establish English _____.

Raleigh's most famous attempt was the Roanoke Colony, which is now in modern-day North _____. Although the colony ultimately failed, it marked the beginning of English _____ in America. Raleigh never gave up on his dream of establishing a permanent English _____ in the New World.

Apart from exploration, Raleigh was also a _____ and poet. He wrote about his adventures and the places he visited. His writings helped ignite the public's _____ and interest in overseas exploration. Raleigh's bold character and ambition made him a heroic _____ in English history.

Raleigh's contributions were not limited to exploration. He was also involved in the _____ of England. He played a role in defending the country against the Spanish _____ in 1588. His efforts in both exploration and defense made him a multifaceted and influential _____.

However, Raleigh's fortunes changed when Queen Elizabeth I died. He fell out of _____ with her successor, King James I, and was imprisoned in the Tower of London. Despite his downfall, Raleigh's _____ lived on. He inspired future generations of explorers and adventurers.

Sir Walter Raleigh's life was a blend of _____ and failure, marked by his relentless pursuit of discovery and his unwavering loyalty to his country. He remains a _____ of the adventurous spirit of the Elizabethan Age.

- | | | | | | | | | |
|-------------|----------|----------|-----------|------------|--------|----------|--------|-------|
| interest | colonies | success | defense | figure | writer | presence | figure | favor |
| imagination | symbol | Carolina | adventure | permission | legacy | Armada | figure | |