

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Stage Management

In the world of _____, the stage manager is the unsung hero who keeps the show running smoothly. This person is responsible for coordinating all aspects of a _____, from rehearsals to the final performance. The stage manager works closely with the _____ to ensure that their vision is realized on stage. They keep track of _____, noting any changes or adjustments made during _____. It's the stage manager's job to create and maintain the _____ sheets, which are essential for timing lights, sound, and scene changes perfectly. They also _____ with the tech crew and actors, providing cues and ensuring that everyone is on the same _____. During the performance, the stage manager is in _____, sitting backstage or in the control booth, ready to address any unexpected _____ that may arise. They are the first to arrive and the last to leave, making sure the _____ is prepared and that all props are in place before the curtain rises. The _____ of a theatrical production often rests on the shoulders of the stage manager, who ensures that every _____ of the show comes together seamlessly. Without their dedication and hard work, the magic we see on stage wouldn't be _____. They truly are the backbone of any _____, working tirelessly behind the scenes to bring the world of the play to life for the _____.

- possible
- rehearsals
- success
- theater
- production
- issues
- communicate
- set
- control
- element
- director
- audience
- production
- page
- scripts
- cue