

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Sustainable Living

Sustainable living is about making choices that reduce our impact on the _____ . Simple actions like recycling, using less water, and reducing energy consumption make a big difference. Choosing to walk or bike instead of driving reduces _____ emissions. Planting a _____ teaches us about the environment and provides fresh food. Using renewable _____ sources like solar panels helps protect natural resources. Sustainable living also involves supporting local _____ that prioritize eco-friendly practices. By carrying reusable _____ and water bottles, we avoid single-use plastics. Sustainable fashion choices, like buying second-hand clothes or choosing items made from sustainable _____ , also contribute. Educating ourselves and others about environmental issues is vital. Schools are increasingly incorporating _____ into their curriculum. Young people are becoming more involved in environmental _____ , demonstrating their commitment to a healthier planet. Together, we can create a sustainable future for ourselves and future _____ .

carbon

generations

materials

energy

bags

sustainability

businesses

activism

planet

garden