

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Battle of the Boyne

The Battle of the Boyne was fought in 1690. It was a crucial _____ in the context of the Glorious Revolution. This battle took place near the River _____ in Ireland. The main figures were King William III and King James II. King William III led the _____ forces. King James II led the Catholic army. The Battle of the Boyne was significant for many _____. It marked the defeat of James II by William III. This _____ ensured Protestant dominance in Ireland. It also solidified William's position as king. The _____ was not just about religion. It was also about power and control over the British Isles. The _____ had long-lasting effects. It influenced the political landscape of _____. It also impacted the relationship between England and Ireland. Many _____ see it as a turning point. The Glorious Revolution was further _____ by this victory. It showed the determination of William's supporters. The Battle of the Boyne remains a key _____ in Irish history. It is remembered every year on the 12th of _____.

secured Protestant Boyne historians July reasons event event Ireland conflict battle victory