

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Black Book of Carmarthen's Secrets

The Black Book of _____ is one of the earliest surviving manuscripts written in the Welsh language. It was created in the _____, reflecting a rich medieval Welsh culture. The book is named after the town of _____ in Wales. It's known for its collection of _____, some of which are the earliest references to King _____ and Merlin. The authors of these poems are largely _____, adding to the book's mysterious allure. The Black Book is held at the National Library of _____, serving as a priceless cultural artifact. Medieval Welsh society was deeply influenced by _____ traditions, where poets held a significant role. The poetry in the Black Book often explores themes of _____, warfare, and the supernatural. One of the most famous poems is 'Stanzas of the _____', which mentions the resting places of Welsh heroes. The manuscript also includes _____, which are doodles and notes made by scribes. These marginalia offer insights into the daily life and thoughts of medieval Welsh _____. The Black Book's content has been pivotal in understanding the medieval Welsh _____ and their cultural values. Despite its age, the book continues to be a source of _____ for modern writers and historians. Its preservation allows a unique glimpse into an era that shaped Welsh _____ and literature.

marginalia	Carmarthen	Arthur	Wales	bardic	scribes	Graves	nature poetry	anonymous	mindset	identity	Carmarthen	inspiration	13th century	