

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Gunpowder Plot and Torture

The Gunpowder Plot was a significant event in _____ history. It took place in 1605. A group of conspirators planned to blow up the _____ of Parliament. Their goal was to kill King James I. They were _____ who were unhappy with the Protestant rule. One of the key conspirators was _____ Fawkes. He was in charge of the gunpowder stored in the cellar under the _____.

The plot was discovered before it could be carried out. The _____ received a tip-off and searched the cellar. They found Fawkes with the _____. He was arrested and taken to the Tower of London. There, he was _____ to reveal the names of his co-conspirators. Torture was commonly used in that era for extracting _____. Fawkes endured severe pain but eventually gave up the _____.

Other conspirators were also captured. They faced _____ interrogations. Torture played a key role in uncovering the full extent of the plot. The _____ extracted led to the arrest of more plotters. Many were _____ for their crimes. The plot had a lasting impact on British _____. It led to stricter laws against Catholics. The use of torture raised ethical _____ that are still discussed today.

British questions harsh names tortured Guy Catholics confessions Parliament Houses explosives information society executed authorities