

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Gunpowder Plot and the related Executions

The Gunpowder Plot was a significant event in English _____. It took place in 1605 when a group of Catholics planned to blow up the Houses of _____. Their aim was to kill King James I and replace him with a Catholic _____. The plot was discovered before it could be carried out. The leader, Guy Fawkes, was caught guarding the _____.

After the discovery, the plotters were arrested and taken to the _____ of London. They were questioned and tortured to get more information. The _____ of the plotters was a public event. They were sentenced to be hanged, drawn, and quartered. This was a common _____ for treason at the time.

Public executions were meant to serve as a _____ to others. They were very brutal and designed to show the consequences of betraying the _____. The plotters' bodies were displayed in different parts of London as a deterrent. The _____ of King James I was celebrated annually as Guy Fawkes Night. People would light bonfires and set off _____ to remember the failed plot.

execution

history

survival

Tower

warning

explosives

fireworks

monarch

crown

punishment

Parliament