

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Gunpowder Treason Act

The Gunpowder Plot was a significant _____ in English history. It occurred in 1605 and involved a group of Catholic conspirators led by Robert _____. The main objective was to blow up the House of Lords and kill King James I. One of the key _____ of the plot was Guy Fawkes. He was found guarding the explosives in the _____ beneath the House of Lords. The discovery of the plot led to the arrest and execution of the _____.

In response to the plot, the Gunpowder Treason _____ was passed in 1606. This act was designed to prevent similar plots in the _____. It required people to attend a special service on November 5th and included a _____ of thanksgiving for the failure of the plot. The act also imposed severe _____ on those who were involved in treasonous activities. The Gunpowder _____ Act played a crucial role in shaping English law and reinforced the authority of the _____.

The Gunpowder Plot and the subsequent Gunpowder Treason Act had a lasting impact on _____. It heightened the fear of Catholic uprisings and led to stricter laws against Catholics. The annual _____ of Guy Fawkes Night, where effigies of Guy Fawkes are burned, remains a _____ in the UK. The Gunpowder Treason Act symbolized the government's commitment to maintaining _____ and preventing rebellion.

- | | | | | | | | |
|---------|--------------|--------|-------------|-----------|----------|-----------|-----|
| cellar | conspirators | order | celebration | event | prayer | England | Act |
| Catesby | members | future | Treason | tradition | monarchy | penalties | |