

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Impact of Exploration

During the _____ of Exploration, Europeans ventured across the _____ to discover new lands. They were driven by a desire for _____, spices, and other goods. Ships like the _____ Maria carried explorers across unknown waters.

Christopher _____ is one of the most famous explorers from this era. When Europeans arrived in the _____, they encountered diverse _____. Despite the initial curiosity, the impact of _____ was profound. Indigenous peoples faced diseases, _____, and displacement. The exchange of goods and ideas during this period is known as the _____ Exchange. It included food, _____, and plants, but also led to the spread of diseases. Art from this period reflects the fascination with new discoveries and the _____ of these encounters. Paintings and maps became tools for understanding and claiming territories. Ultimately, the Age of Exploration changed the _____ in ways that are still being understood today.

Columbian

conflict

world

oceans

Santa

wealth

colonization

Age

animals

Americas

cultures

complexity

Columbus