

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Last Supper in Art

"The Last Supper" is one of the most _____ paintings in the world. Created by _____ da Vinci, it represents a key moment in Christian history. The painting depicts the moment Jesus announces that one of his _____ will betray him. Each disciple reacts differently, showing a range of _____. Leonardo used a technique called _____ to create a sense of depth and realism. The work was done on the wall of the _____ of Santa Maria delle Grazie in Milan. Unfortunately, Leonardo's experimental technique for wall painting led to deterioration over _____. Restorations have been attempted, but the original _____ and details are partly lost. This painting is a prime example of _____ art. It showcases Leonardo's interest in human _____, anatomy, and perspective. The layout of the figures and the use of _____ and shadow are particularly noteworthy. Despite its condition, "The Last Supper" continues to attract millions of _____ each year. Its influence extends beyond art, impacting literature, film, and popular _____. Leonardo's approach to depicting this biblical scene was revolutionary, changing the course of _____ history.

emotions

Renaissance

culture

famous

Leonardo

colors

sfumato

time

visitors

art

Convent

disciples

light

psychology