

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Men Behind the Gunpowder Plot

The Gunpowder Plot was a significant event in British _____. It took place in 1605 and involved a group of conspirators. The _____ of this group was Robert Catesby. He was unhappy with the treatment of _____ in England. Catesby gathered a small group of men to help him. One of these men was Guy _____. Fawkes was an expert in explosives.

The plan was to blow up the Houses of _____. They wanted to kill King James I and other important leaders. They hoped this would lead to a _____ government. The conspirators hid barrels of gunpowder in the _____ of the Parliament building.

However, the plan did not succeed. An anonymous _____ was sent to warn one of the members of Parliament. The authorities searched the _____ and found Fawkes guarding the explosives. He was arrested and tortured. Fawkes revealed the _____ of the other conspirators. The conspirators were either killed while resisting _____ or were captured and executed. The failure of the plot led to stricter laws against Catholics in _____. The Gunpowder Plot is remembered every year on November 5th, known as Guy Fawkes _____.

cellar names Catholics arrest cellar letter England Parliament
Fawkes Night Catholic history leader