

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Persistence of Memory - A Masterpiece of Art

Salvador Dali, a _____ artist, created the famous painting "The Persistence of Memory" in 1931. This work is known for its _____ style, blending dream and reality. The _____ depicts a landscape that resembles Dali's hometown in Catalonia. In the foreground, melting _____ drape over various objects. These clocks symbolize the fluidity of _____. A central element is the _____ clock, covered by ants, which often represent decay in Dali's work. The landscape appears almost _____, enhancing the feeling of a dreamlike space. An odd figure resembling a human _____ lies in the center, which Dali said was inspired by a rock formation. The _____ in the painting is a calming blue, contrasting with the strange scene below. Dali used oil on _____ to create this iconic image. "The Persistence of Memory" challenges viewers to think about the nature of time and _____. Today, it is housed in the Museum of Modern _____ in New York, attracting countless visitors each year.

time

reality

painting

face

Spanish

sky

clocks

canvas

Art

surreal

orange

desert-like