

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

The Starry Night - A Masterpiece in Art History

Vincent van Gogh, a famous _____, created "The Starry Night" in 1889. This artwork is known for its vibrant _____ and emotional intensity. Van Gogh painted it while he was in an _____ in Saint-Rémy-de-Provence. The painting shows a small _____ under a swirling sky. The _____ is filled with stars that seem to be in motion. One of the most eye-catching features is the bright _____. Despite its beauty, van Gogh considered "The Starry Night" to be a _____. He struggled with mental health issues, which influenced his _____. The painting was not sold during his _____. It became famous after his _____. Today, it is displayed at the Museum of Modern Art in New _____ City.

"The Starry Night" is an example of _____. This style emphasizes geometric forms and uses bold _____. The painting has inspired countless artists and is a _____ of artistic genius. Its influence extends beyond art, impacting _____ and media worldwide.

painter	asylum	moon	lifetime	sky	York	brushstrokes	failure culture	village	colors	art	symbol	death	Post-Impressionism	