

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Thomas Jefferson's Impact

Thomas Jefferson was a key figure in the American _____. Born in 1743, he became an important leader. Jefferson was the principal author of the _____ of Independence. This document declared the colonies' freedom from British _____. Jefferson's writing was influential. It inspired many colonists to support the cause of _____.

Jefferson was also a statesman. He served as the third President of the United _____. During his presidency, he made significant changes. One notable achievement was the Louisiana _____. This doubled the size of the nation and promoted exploration. Jefferson believed in a limited _____. He wanted to protect the rights of individual states.

As a young man, Jefferson studied _____. His education helped him become a powerful speaker. He argued for the rights of the _____.

Jefferson believed that people should have the right to self-govern. This idea was central to his _____.

Jefferson's contributions were not only political. He was also a man of many _____. He was interested in science, architecture, and education. He founded the University of _____. This institution became a model for higher education in the United States. Jefferson's vision for the _____ included a focus on knowledge and learning.

Jefferson's legacy is complex. He was a champion of _____, yet he owned slaves. This contradiction has led to much debate among historians. Despite this, _____'s role in shaping the nation is undeniable. His ideas on freedom and democracy have had a lasting _____.

- country
- philosophy
- impact
- Revolution
- Declaration
- talents
- government
- Virginia
- colonists
- Purchase
- liberty
- independence
- law
- rule
- States
- Jefferson