

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Venice's Renaissance Era

Venice, a city built on _____, is known for its unique architecture. During the _____, this city became a center of art and culture. The streets of Venice are actually _____, and boats are the main form of transportation. One famous site is the _____ Bridge, which is an architectural marvel. Venetian painters like _____ were known for their use of color. The _____ Palace is another landmark, showcasing Venice's wealth and power. In Venice, there are many narrow _____ that lead to beautiful squares. The city's connection to the sea made it a powerful _____ hub. Renaissance Venice was a melting pot of different _____. Many buildings in Venice feature _____ influences, due to its trade connections. The _____ scene in Venice was also vibrant, with composers like Vivaldi. Venetian glass, made on the island of _____, is famous worldwide. Lastly, the Venice _____ is known for its elaborate masks and costumes.

water

Carnival

Rialto

Titian

alleys

Murano

music

trading

cultures

Byzantine

canals

Doge's

Renaissance