

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Wassailing Traditions

In medieval _____, wassailing was a popular _____ tradition. It involved visiting houses and _____ to the occupants. Wassailing was especially common during the _____ season. People carried a large bowl of _____, a warm drink made from _____, spices, and sometimes _____. The purpose of this tradition was to bring _____ and ensure a fruitful _____.

The wassailers would greet each _____ with songs and expect some form of _____ in return. This often included food, drink, or _____.

The act of wassailing is believed to have _____ origins, blending later with Christian _____. It was a way for communities to _____ and share _____.

Children and _____ alike participated in this festive activity. The wassail bowl was a symbol of _____ and community _____. In some regions, wassailing also included blessing the _____ trees. This was done by placing wassail-soaked _____ in the branches and pouring wassail around the tree's _____.

The tradition of wassailing reminds us of the importance of _____ and the joy of sharing during the _____ months. It represents a fascinating aspect of medieval _____ and how people celebrated together.

spirit	singing	prosperity	England	pagan	bread	community	household
hospitality	customs	festival	roots	bond	harvest	apple	winter	life
money	wassail	cider	honey	good luck	Christmas	generosity	adults	