

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Whigs and Tories in History

The Glorious Revolution took place in 1688 in _____. This event changed the political landscape of the country. It marked the end of the reign of _____ II. He was replaced by William III and Mary II. The two main political _____ at this time were the Whigs and the Tories. The Whigs were supportive of the _____. They wanted to limit the power of the monarchy. The Tories were more traditional. They supported the _____ and the established church. Both groups had different views on how the _____ should be governed. The Whigs were more in favor of a constitutional monarchy. They believed in the _____ of Parliament. The Tories believed in the divine right of kings. The Glorious Revolution resulted in the _____ of Rights. This document was crucial for establishing the principles of parliamentary _____. It was a significant turning point in British history.

The Whigs and Tories had long-standing _____. The Whigs were generally seen as more progressive. They often supported commercial _____ and religious tolerance. The Tories, on the other hand, were more aligned with the _____ gentry. They prioritized the preservation of tradition and the status quo. During the Glorious _____, these differences became even more pronounced. The Whigs played a key role in inviting William of _____ to take the throne. They saw this as a way to prevent a Catholic monarchy. The _____ were hesitant but eventually accepted the change to avoid further conflict.

The _____ of the Glorious Revolution had lasting effects. It paved the way for the development of a modern constitutional _____. The balance of power shifted towards Parliament. This period also saw the rise of political _____ as we know them today. The Whigs and Tories evolved into the foundations of the modern British political _____. Understanding this history helps us see the roots of contemporary political _____.

- structures
- James
- groups
- rights
- Revolution
- Orange
- England
- Tories
- interests
- revolution
- system
- king
- monarchy
- parties
- landed
- rivalries
- Bill
- outcome
- country
- democracy