

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

William Bradford's Leadership.

William Bradford was a key figure among the _____ who sailed to America on the Mayflower. He was born in England and became a leader of the _____ group seeking religious freedom. In 1620, the Pilgrims decided to leave for the New World. They sailed on the _____ and landed at Plymouth Rock. Bradford helped establish the Plymouth _____ in what is now Massachusetts.

As a leader, Bradford was elected the second _____ of Plymouth Colony after the first governor, John Carver, died. He served for over 30 years. Bradford's _____ was crucial in the colony's early years. He organized the building of homes and managed relations with Native _____. He formed an alliance with the Wampanoag tribe, which helped the Pilgrims survive their first _____.

Bradford also wrote "Of Plymouth Plantation," a detailed account of the Pilgrims' _____. This work is one of the primary sources of information about the early _____ of the colony. His writing gives us insight into the challenges the Pilgrims faced and their _____ to succeed. Bradford's efforts ensured the survival and growth of the Plymouth Colony.

The first _____ was celebrated in 1621, after a successful harvest. Bradford played a significant role in this _____. It was a three-day feast attended by both Pilgrims and Native Americans. Bradford's _____ and vision for a self-sustaining colony left a lasting impact on American _____.

years governance history event determination Pilgrims Americans winter governor Mayflower leadership Thanksgiving Separatist Colony experiences