

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

World Religions

Religion is a _____ that has shaped human civilizations for centuries. It involves beliefs, practices, and often a _____ or multiple deities. In Christianity, followers believe in _____ Christ as the son of God. The religion is based on his teachings and life, as recorded in the _____. In contrast, Islam follows the teachings of the Prophet _____, with the _____ being their holy book. Hinduism, one of the oldest religions, is practiced by millions in _____ and has numerous gods and goddesses. Buddhism, founded by _____ Gautama, focuses on enlightenment through meditation and moral living. In Sikhism, _____ Nanak and the subsequent nine Gurus are revered. Their teachings are compiled in the _____ Granth Sahib. Judaism, with its rich history, centers around the worship of one God and adherence to the _____. Another ancient religion, _____, is monotheistic and was once widespread in ancient Persia. Lesser-known but equally fascinating, Shinto is a traditional _____ religion focusing on rituals and spirits. Understanding these religions provides insight into diverse _____ and global perspectives.

Jesus	concept	Bible	Siddhartha	India	Guru	Torah	Quran
Muhammad	deity	Japanese	Zoroastrianism	cultures	Guru		