

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Zimbabwe's Place in the World

Zimbabwe, a country located in _____ Africa, is known for its rich history and cultural heritage. The _____ River forms its northern border, offering stunning natural _____ and opportunities for tourism. Zimbabwe's economy is heavily reliant on _____, mining, and tourism. The country is one of the world's largest producers of _____, which is a significant export product. Zimbabwe also boasts vast reserves of _____ and minerals, including gold, diamonds, and platinum, contributing to its economy. The _____ Falls, one of the Seven Natural Wonders of the World, is located on the Zambezi _____ and attracts thousands of visitors annually. Zimbabwe's education system is regarded as one of the _____ in Africa, with a high literacy rate. The official language is _____, making it accessible for international tourists. _____ has faced its share of challenges, including political instability and economic _____. However, the nation is making strides towards stability and growth. The _____ of Zimbabwe are known for their resilience and vibrant culture, which includes music, dance, and art. The Great _____ Ruins, an ancient city built in the 11th century, is a UNESCO World Heritage site and reflects the country's rich archaeological _____. Zimbabwe's wildlife and national parks are part of its efforts to conserve _____ and attract eco-tourism. The country plays a crucial role in regional _____ and is a member of the African Union and the Southern African Development Community.

Victoria Zimbabwe River metals landscapes heritage agriculture politics Zimbabwe sanctions Zambezi biodiversity tobacco people strongest English Southern