

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Art Criticism

Tasks:

1. Write the words in the correct gaps!
2. Scan the QR code to check if everything is correct!
3. Copy the text again in your notebook without any mistakes!

Art criticism involves analyzing and evaluating _____. Critics use their knowledge to interpret and understand art, often sharing their insights with the public. One important aspect of art criticism is _____, which includes the historical and cultural background of the piece. Critics also consider the _____ used, such as oil, acrylic, or digital methods. The _____ of the artwork, whether it's abstract, realism, or impressionism, plays a crucial role in its assessment. Critics often explore the _____ intention and the message they're trying to convey. Color, texture, and _____ are also key elements that are scrutinized. Critics might discuss how the artwork makes the _____ feel, which is subjective but important. The _____ used by the artist, such as brushwork or sculpting skills, is another focus area. Critics also evaluate the _____ and originality of the work. How the art fits into or challenges current _____ in the art world is often a topic of discussion. The _____ of the artwork, both immediate and long-term, is also a significant aspect of art criticism. Lastly, the _____ of the artwork in contemporary society or within a specific cultural context is often considered by critics.

composition

innovation

trends

artworks

technique

medium

impact

context

viewer

artist's

style

relevance