

name: _____

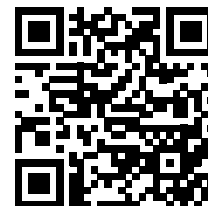

class: _____

date: _____

Art and Culture

Tasks:

1. Write the words in the correct gaps!
2. Scan the QR code to check if everything is correct!
3. Copy the text again in your notebook without any mistakes!

Art and culture are essential parts of human _____, reflecting our history, beliefs, and creativity. Across the globe, various forms of _____ have evolved, showcasing the diversity of human expression. From the ancient _____ paintings to modern digital art, each piece tells a story. _____, for instance, is a universal language, connecting people across cultures and generations. It ranges from classical symphonies to contemporary pop songs, each _____ resonating with different emotions. Similarly, _____ has been a medium for sharing experiences, ideas, and fantasies. Through books, _____, and plays, authors transport us to imaginary worlds or offer insights into different societies. _____, another expressive form, combines movement and rhythm to convey stories and _____. Different cultures have their own unique dance forms, from ballet to hip-hop. Visual arts like _____ and sculpture often capture the beauty and complexity of the human experience. Famous paintings like the _____ or Starry Night continue to inspire and intrigue viewers. In sculpture, materials like _____, bronze, or even recycled objects are transformed into meaningful _____. Theatre and film also play a significant role in art and _____. They not only entertain but also challenge our perspectives and reflect societal issues. _____ and cultural events, celebrated worldwide, bring people together to enjoy and appreciate these artistic _____. Moreover, museums and galleries act as guardians of cultural heritage. They preserve and display _____, artifacts, and historical items, educating and inspiring future generations. Art and culture are not just about _____; they are platforms for dialogue, change, and understanding among people. They remind us of our shared _____ and the endless potential of the human imagination.

cave

humanity

Dance

poems

Music

enjoyment

culture

painting

Festivals

Mona Lisa

art

style

expressions

literature

works

life

artworks

emotions

marble