

name: _____

class: _____

date: _____

Business Studies

Tasks:

1. Write the words in the correct gaps!
2. Scan the QR code to check if everything is correct!
3. Copy the text again in your notebook without any mistakes!

Business studies is an academic subject that combines elements of _____, economics, marketing, and organizational studies. It provides students with a comprehensive understanding of how _____ operate and the various factors that influence their success. In business studies, one learns about the importance of _____ in guiding a company towards its goals. Students also explore the role of _____ in promoting products and services to consumers. Finance is a crucial aspect of business studies, where students understand how _____ is managed within a company. They learn about different financial statements like the balance sheet and _____ statement, which are essential for assessing a company's financial health. Business studies also cover the concept of _____, encouraging students to think creatively and develop innovative business ideas.

Another critical area in business studies is _____ resources, focusing on managing employees and maintaining a productive work environment. Students learn about various leadership styles and how they impact employee _____. The subject also delves into the legal aspects of running a business, including laws related to _____, contracts, and consumer rights.

In today's global economy, international _____ is a significant topic in business studies. Students explore how businesses expand their operations overseas and the challenges they face in different _____. They also study the impact of economic policies and international _____ on business operations.

Overall, business studies equip students with essential skills like critical thinking, problem-solving, and effective _____. These skills are vital not just in the business world but in everyday _____.

money

performance

communication

trade

human

life

employment

management

agreements

entrepreneurship

marketing

markets

businesses

accounting

income